

Zafer DOKUMCU, MD, FEBPS

Associate Professor of Pediatric Surgery

Pediatric Thoracic Surgery Unit

Ege University Faculty of Medicine

Izmir, Turkey

He was born in Izmir, Turkey in 1974. He completed his medical degree and fellowship in Pediatric Surgery at Ege University Faculty of Medicine, Izmir. He worked as an observer fellow at St James University-Leeds Teaching Hospital in Leeds, UK with scholarship from ESPU. He returned to Ege University in 2011 where he now works and teaches as an Associate Professor in Department of Pediatric Surgery. He is an active fellow of European Board of Paediatric Surgery (EBPS) since 2016.

His main interests are; pediatric thoracic (lung – chest wall – diaphragm) surgery, minimally invasive surgery, robotic surgery, foregut (windpipe and food pipe) surgery, oncological surgery, newborn surgery and airway surgery.

He is an active member of national (Turkish Association of Pediatric Surgery) and international (European Paediatric Surgeons' Association, European Society of Paediatric Endoscopic Surgeons and International Pediatric Endo-Surgery Group) societies. He is the author of numerous international articles and presentations and an active member of IPEG-Middle East Chapter Board. He is Vice Physician-in-Chief at Ege University Hospital and also an active member of residency training, research training programme and continuous professional development commissions in Ege University Faculty of Medicine.

He is married and father of two sons.